Establishment Guidelines for the College Council Meeting of Si Wan College

Approved by the 10th Executive Meeting, Academic Year 107

Article 1. These Guidelines are stipulated in accordance with the provisions of “Organization Act of the National Sun Yat-sen University” and the” Regulation for Establishment of Si Wan College.”

Article 2. The College Council Meeting of Si Wan College (hereinafter referred to as “the Meeting”) is established as the highest decision-making meeting of Si Wan College, with the purpose of discussing and deciding matters related to teaching, research, and other affairs of Si Wan College (hereinafter referred to as “the College”).

Article 3. Members of the Meeting include the dean, vice dean, director of each institute/center/program, and faculty representatives from each institute/center/program (including distinguished faculties). Additionally, the dean shall serve as the chairperson of the Meeting. There shall be at least one faculty representative from each institute/center/program, and one additional faculty representative shall be added for each five additional full-time faculty members. The term of appointment as faculty representative shall be set for one year, with the possibility of reelection. When necessary, related persons and students can be invited as nonvoting observers.

Article 4. The Meeting shall be held at least once every semester. If necessary, the dean may call for extraordinary meetings. The same procedure applies when more than half of the representatives launch a petition to call for an extra meeting.

Article 5. Decisions of the Meeting shall be made by simple majority wherein more than half of members in attendance are of a single consensus and when at least half of the Meeting members are in attendance.

Article 6. These guidelines are approved by the Si Wan College Affairs Meeting and are implemented after being approved by the president. Amendments to the guidelines shall follow the same procedures.
